

"Give him a sound caning; beat him within an inch of his life!" interrupted Mr. G. "he well deserves it," and placing his own foot firmly upon the breast of the fallen man, he gave vent to his burning hatred.

The blood flowed freely from the mouth and nose of the wretched man, and he was already so bruised and mangled, that only a few groans escaped him.

"There," exclaimed Mr. Gastone, restraining his passion. "I fancy he will tell no more lies for the present. Heaven grant he may repent during the leisure this castigation will ensure him."

Hastily pushing him with their feet against the wall with which that part of the street was lined, they quickly retired. This scene had not occupied five minutes, in the mean time.

The Kansas Chief.

SOL. MILLER, EDITOR.

WHITE CLOUD, KANSAS:
Thursday: : : : May 3, 1860.

To You.—We fear our patrons have forgotten the request we made of them, but a few weeks ago; therefore, unpleasant though it be, we must repeat it. We want every person indebted to us for advertising and job-work, and subscriptions of one year and over, to make settlement forthwith. We must have the money. If we want to continue publishing a paper, we must have the means, immediately, to lay in a Summer stock of material; and if our patrons want us to continue, they must furnish the means. We hope we are now understood, and that we shall not be under the necessity of resorting to harsher measures.

MAGAZINES AND PAPERS.—By arrangement with the publishers of the following magazines and papers, we are enabled to furnish them, in connection with the Chief, much lower than the publishers' rates; so that our subscribers will find it an advantage to order through us. The first column of figures below, shows the prices which subscribers must pay if they order from the publishers direct; and the other column shows the prices at which they can obtain them when ordered through us:

Godley's Lady's Book, $3 $2.00
Peterson's Magazine, 2 1.25
Knickerbocker, 2 2.00
Atlantic Monthly, 2 2.00
Moore's Rural New Yorker, 2 1.25
Prairie Farmer, 2 1.25

Thus it will be seen that, by ordering through us, a saving of from 75 cents to $1 may be made on each of the above publications. Their publishers make this liberal deduction to country newspaper publishers, for the mutual advantage of both parties; and a good opportunity is thus afforded for all to obtain cheap literature. Remember, we extend this offer to none but paying subscribers to the Chief.

Our inside space, this week, is almost entirely occupied with the Statement of County Finances, which makes a tremendous run upon capitals, figures and quads. But it will doubtless prove acceptable to our Doniphan County readers, as it is the first statement ever made of our County finances, and embraces the whole time since the organization of the County. The people can now see how much of their money has been spent, what it was spent for, and who got it.

SMASH-UP AT CHARLESTON.—Our latest advice from Charleston, reports a blow-up among the Democracy. Nine Southern States withdrew from the Convention, and it was thought would nominate Dickinson for President, while the Convention would nominate Douglas. Let them fight—"when rogues fall out, honest men get their dues."

RIVER.—The river continues very low, and still no rain. Boats during the past week:—

Up.—Omaha, Thursday; E. M. Ryland, Friday; Hesperian, Sunday; Emile, Tuesday; Izetta, Thursday.
Down.—Emilie and A. McDowell, Sunday; Omaha, Wednesday; E. M. Ryland, Thursday.

The Emigrant took below about one hundred and twenty tons of pork, consisting of sides, hams and shoulders, last week, from the pork house at this place; and the E. M. Ryland took on a cargo to-day. There is a very large quantity yet awaiting shipment.

The great prize fight came off in England, on the 17th of April. It was evident that Heenan was about to prove victorious, when Sayers' friends raised a mob, rushed in, and broke up the ring.

The speech of Mr. Parrott, the delegate from Kansas, on his admission as a State, has won golden opinions from all sides. It was marked by unusual ability, good taste, and finish. If our conflicts in the Territories are to bring forth such men as Mr. Parrott, we think our Southern brethren will be shy of provoking them. Few men have made a more decided or better impression than Mr. Parrott since the assembling of this Congress, so says the Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune.

Michael Coon died in Philadelphia on the 20th inst. in his 106th year. He was born October 15, 1754, and served throughout the Revolution and the war of 1812. During the former struggle he was accompanied by three brothers. He was six feet four inches in height, and the dwarf of the family at that.
